HVD Bodedo Info

How would a classical Typeface look, if it's cut out of an indefinite material like Potatoes?

That was the Question when we started this project. HVD Bodedo is made out of 8 kg Potatoes. It's based on a classical typeface like Bodoni. Four friends cut potatoes all night long in the kitchen, then printed it on paper and scanned the prints. HVD Bodedo, Dirty like shit, but noble like a classic concert. (Special thanks to: Felix, Robin & Carro)
